In answer to your letter of November 21st, I shall be glad to see you at any time, but I hope that you will not make a trip to Washington just for this purpose. As you may imagine, I have been terribly busy in this new job, but I gathered that the job for you in this Agency that we discussed last summer had not materialized. Let me know how the matter stands from your end, and give me a ring when and if you are in Washington.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely,

WILLIAM H. JACKSON

Dear Bill

I fully realize how busy you are and how your time is taken up. However I would appreciate the courtesy of your allowing me to have a few minutes for a talk.

At your convenience I will come to Washington anytime you designate.

With all best wishes,
